

Job Number: F-11126-5
Title: Business Applications Analyst, SAP Manufacturing Application
Location: Mayfield Heights, Ohio
Length: Full Time
Start Date: ASAP
Rate: Up to $105,000.00

Reports to: Business Systems Development Manager

The position is a senior analyst role, responsible for the manufacturing module application design and support for both new development and existing deployed SAP Manufacturing (PP) or Quality (QM) modules.

Responsibilities:

- Member of a team responsible for the SAP manufacturing modules with concentration in production planning, inventory, quality management and purchasing
- Manufacturing team leader for Sap implementation projects
- Develop business process requirements independently or participating within a Lean Manufacturing Project
- Design and Configure SAP manufacturing modules
- Provide specifications for custom programming
- Conduct User Training and Support
- Project management
- Conduct business process analysis and feasibility studies for enhancing business manufacturing processes in regards to information technology

This will require:

- Working with senior management and location operating personal
- Working with a team in defining manufacturing business system process changes
- Creating specifications for programming
- Configuration in the SAP manufacturing modules (PP, MM and QM)
- Maintaining script documentation
- Travel to various locations is estimated at 25-50%

Requirements:

- BS/BA degree in Engineering or Information Systems. An MBA is a plus
- Minimum of 5 years of SAP configuration experience with concentration in manufacturing applications production planning or Quality management
- Minimum 5 years experience in the process or metal industry
- System design or package implementation experience
- Project management experience preferred
- APICS Certification is a plus
- Certification in Lean or Six Sigma a plus
- Configuration skills in variant configuration or material management is a plus