

Job Number: F-1207-2

Title: Sr Java Programmer/Analyst

Location: Cleveland, Ohio

Type: Full Time

Start date: ASAP

5% Travel Required

Salary Range: $68,000 - $90,000.00 yearly (depending on experience)

Position Responsibilities:

The IT Analyst/Developer designs, develops, implements, maintains, and documents mission critical business applications for the retail/wholesale environment. The applications are primarily intranet applications that support in store systems and include in store application programs. The position is responsible for the configuration and administration of the JBoss application server used for the intranet applications.

The IT Developer/Analyst:

- Performs feasibility and cost/benefit analyses for proposed projects
- Gathers user, business and technical requirements for application changes
- Plans and organizes tasks, reports on project progress, coordinates with additional development teams
- Codes application program changes to specifications
- Creates test plans, test cases and test scripts
- Conducts quality control tests to ensure integrity, validity and reliability of the developed applications
- Prepares field pilot of application changes, monitors pilot results and reports on pilot progress
- Coordinates the deployment of applications into production
- Trains support personnel on application operation and assists with end-user problem resolution
- Configures, monitors and maintains the JBoss application server

Experience Required:

5 years of IT experience

3 years of Java programming and RDBMS experience

Education Required:

Bachelor's degree in computer science or related field or equivalent experience

Preferred Technical Experience:

Web development, Unix/Linux, Oracle, SQL, J2EE, JSP, HTML, XML, JavaScript, EJB
JBoss, Eclipse, Progress, 4GL and RDBMS, JavaScript, JSP